

Name: _____
(as you would like it to appear on your Digital Driver's License)

Date of Exam: _____

Digital Driver's License Exam

You must get a score of 100% to pass.

You may retake the exam as many times as you need to in order to pass.

You will not be granted a digital driver's license until you pass this test.

1. When writing on a blog, should I share my secrets?
  - a. sure, a blog is like a diary, so this is where I should put them.
  - b. it doesn't matter, only my friends read my blog.
  - c. no, the blog is open to anyone who has access to the Internet.
  - d. as long as no one knows my true identity.
2. When learning about technology in school, it is important for you to know:
  - a. the rules for using technology.
  - b. how to work with others when using the technology.
  - c. how the different technologies are used.
  - d. all the above.
3. Students with disabilities (those who aren't able to see, hear, or walk):
  - a. can't use technology.
  - b. should have the same opportunities as others to use technology.
  - c. are not able to understand and learn about technology.
  - d. have no reason to use technology.
4. When looking at graphics and text from the Internet:
  - a. take whatever you want because the purpose of the Internet.
  - b. ask your friends for places to find material you can copy.
  - c. ask for permission to use the information before using them.
  - d. avoid it because all the information on the Internet is false.
5. When using a new technology in class, you should:
  - a. do what ever you want because no one ever checks.
  - b. ask teachers and parents about what can be done.
  - c. figure out ways that you can have fun with it.
  - d. ask your friends because they know about technology.
6. When dealing with people online, giving personal information is:
  - a. okay as long these people live far away.
  - b. never a good idea, no matter the reason.
  - c. fine as long as the people are nice.
  - d. nothing to worry about.

7. If someone online is being mean and calling you A BIG DORK in BIG LETTERS, you can do several things. Which should you definitely NOT do?
- A. Ask an adult for advice
  - B. Say mean things about them in BIG LETTERS!
  - C. Tell them politely that you are not a dork.
  - D. Ignore them
8. Sharing music or copyrighted material online:
- A. doesn't hurt anyone because musicians and actors make enough money
  - B. is caused by greedy companies
  - C. is illegal and should not be done
  - D. keeps the musician or actor popular
9. If someone puts copyrighted material on the Internet and another person wants to use it, that person should:
- A. use it, if it is for educational use
  - B. take it, and use it as they want
  - C. not use the information because it is too much trouble
  - D. ask permission from the author or at least cite the source
10. In schools, students should:
- A. have the ability to do whatever they want online
  - B. look at other student's e-mail if they have the password
  - C. follow the all the policies and rules of the classroom, school, and district
  - D. come up with rules with their friends for using technology
11. When you are sending messages to new people online, it's OK to:
- A. talk about things you have in common.
  - B. invite them over to your house to hang out.
  - C. give them your phone number and email address so they can call or email you.
  - D. let them send you computer files (like documents, music, and videos).
12. Words and images I post on my blog or website will be:
- A. read only by my teacher
  - B. around forever and can be searched by anyone
  - C. will be deleted tomorrow so it doesn't matter what I post
  - D. ignored completely

Source: These questions were adapted from PBSKids' Digital Driver's License (<http://pbskids.org/license/index.html>) and the Digital Citizenship website published by Mike Ribble (<http://www.digitalcitizenship.net>). I can trust these sites because one is published by a well-known educational media company and the other is written by an educator who posted an email address and links to reputable sources, such as the International Society for Technology in Education.

The Edusoft answer sheet available in the folder called, "4/5 Monarch Tests."